EOP的好處

THINK IN ENGLISH

Students gain more opportunities to think in English to analyze the language and how to express themselves.

KEEPS THE NATIVE LANGUAGE DOMINATION

English only policy keeps the native language from dominating and puts more emphasis on the language being learned.

MAXIMIZES EXPOSURE

Students are not only exposed to more English, but they are able to gather feedback from errors they make as well as errors others make.

GAIN CONFIDENCE

The confidence the student acquires in the classroom can carry over to the outside world.

SPEAKING SKILL WORKOUT

Some educational systems do not emphasize speaking skills, This policy allows the students to exercise this neglected area.

MISSION PROCESS

Driven towards global competence in terms of English instruction, International Learning Centre (ILC) aligns with its main concept 'English in Action' which is to give students various MISSIONS to accomplish in a day to acquire what they have learned and practiced in classes.

示例任務

Mission: Asking for item location in the supermarket

(A0 to A1+) Student: Hello. Where is the chocolate please?

(A2) Student: Excuse me. Could you tell me where the Potato chip is?

Staff: Yes. You can find it in aisle number three.

(A0 to A1+) Student: I see. Thank you.
(A2) Student: I see. Thank you for your help.

Staff: You're welcome.

Mission: Ordering food in the fast-food restaurant

Staff: Hi. May I take your order?

(A0 to A1+) Student: Hello. Can I have one piece chicken meal and a chocolate sundae please?

(A2) Student: Hello. I would like to order one piece chicken meal and a chocolate sundae.

Staff: How about your drink? We have Coke, Sprite, and Iced tea.

(A0 to A1+) Student: Iced tea please.

(A2) Student: I would like iced tea please.

Staff: I will repeat your order. One piece chicken, chocolate sundae and a glass of iced tea.

(A0 to A1+) Student: Yes. Thank you.

(A2) Student: That's right. Thank you.

Mission: Asking for price in the convenience store

(A0-A1+) Student: Excuse me. How much is this?

(A2) Student: Excuse me. Could you tell me how much this item is?

Staff: It's 50 Pesos.

(A0-A1+) Student: Thank you.

(A2) Student: I see. Thank you for your help.
